

Dustin Farnsworth

Kendall College

Wood

With the fellowship, I plan to move to Asheville, NC and over the course of a year work for three or more makers whose work varies in style and material, each for a three-month period. Working for established makers at varying levels of sustainability, I hope to refine my craft while developing the mastery of wood and steel necessary to become a self-sustained craftsman.

