

Amy Hamai

San Diego State University

Metals

My perfect 18 months will involve attending workshops at Penland School of Crafts, and Haystack Mountain School of Crafts to refine my technical abilities in jewelry making and to attend conferences and trade shows (SBAG Seattle, SOFA Chicago and ACC Baltimore) to broaden my awareness of contemporary craft conversations and insights into the professional world. I will also set up a longed for studio space to work on a body of work.